Giant White Star Liner Justicia, Fine Troopship, Victim of German Sub

(Associated Press Telegram)
An Irish Port, Monday, July 22—
The giant White Star liner, Justicia, has been torpedoed and sunk. It is believed no loss of life occurred.

The Justicia was formerly the Dutch steamer, Statendam, which was taken over by the British government on the stocks at Belfast when she was nearing completion. She was a vessel of 32,234 tons gross.

The Justicia in size and tonnage nearly approached the dimensions of the great steamship Vaterland, now in the service of the American government and being used for a carrier of American troops to Europe. She was designed as a modern passenger liner for the trade between New York and Rotterdam, but she never entered that service. Where there were intended to be magnificent served and decorated cabins, salons
and stairways, rough woodwork was installed instead.

After being completed at Belfast,
the Cunard Steamship company turned the Justicia over to the British admiralty and the vessel for some time was used as a transport of supplies.

In March, 1917, the German government wireless service announced that German submarines had sunk
in the Mediterranean an armed transport steamer of 34,494 tons, with about 500 colonial troops, artillery and horses, on board. At that time the report became current that it was the Justicia which was referred to by the German admiralty as the vessel was then in use as a transport carrying troops from Australia and New Zealand to England, and was approximately of the tonnage named. Her subsequent arrival at an American port, however, showed that the report was a mistaken one.

The Justicia was 740 feet long, 86
feet beam, and 43 feet deep.

TEN TORPEDOES

WERE DISCHARGED

(Associated Press Telegram)
London, July 24.—The White Star
liner Justicia, says a Belfast dispatch, was sunk off the North Irish coast on Saturday morning, last.

The Justicia carried a crew of between 600 and 700. Eleven members of the crew are dead, and the news of the sinking of the Justicia was announced by the Belfast Evening Telegraph. The liner was torpedoed, the newspaper states.

One of the crew of the Justicia is quoted by the newspaper as asserting that 10 torpedoes were discharged at the Justicia. Four of the approaching missiles, he added, were exploded
by gun-fire from the ship.

The Justicia, with her gross tonnage of about 33,000 tons, was the second largest ship sunk during the war. The Britannic, a White Star liner of 45,000 gross tons was sunk

in the Aegean sea, in November 1916. The Lusitania was of about 32,000 tons.

Officials of the Holland-America line, for which the Justicia was built and to which the ship would have reverted after the war said today she was valued at $10,000,000
and was built to be one of the finest passenger ships in trans-Atlantic service. She was supposed to be as nearly unsinkable as modern ship construction would make her.

On her last trip from an Atlantic port the Justicia was commanded by Captain A. E. S. Hambleton and carried nearly 10,000 troops, considerably in excess of her rated capacity, and a 15,000 ton cargo. She was a triple screw turbine driven and capable of 18 knots and had a double bottom fore and aft, with all water tight bulkheads extending up to the bridge deck. The ship had nine steel decks and three funnels.

The Belfast Telegraph says that land had just been lost sight of
when a terrific explosion shook the Justicia. The crew was speedily mustered on deck, but it was soon ascertained that the damage was so trivial that the liner would remain afloat for a sufficient period to enable her to be towed to port.

A tug pulled alongside the liner
for this purpose, when two more torpedoes were fired by a submarine which had not been sighted. These

GERMAN ARTILLERY BROUGHT INTO PLAY DURING THE NIGHT ALONG FRONT BETWEEN THE AISNE AND THE MARNE NORTH-EAST TOWARD RHEIMS

ASSAULT OF THE ENEMY WAS BROKEN BY THE FRENCH TROOPS AND POSITIONS HELD INTACT

Allies Continue to Push Forward in Face of Determined and Skillful Resistance by Germans Who are Said to Have Thirty-Five Divisions in Battle Zone, 400,000 Men of Which are in the Region North of the Marne—Rainy Weather of Last Few Days Has Slowed Up Fighting Between Soissons and Rheims as Well as Retarded the German Retirement From Bag in Which Crown Prince's Forces Were Caught.

(Associated Press Telegram)

Paris, July 24.—The Germans last night delivered a counter-attack upon the allied lines in the vicinity of Vrigny, five miles southwest of Rheims. The war office announced today that the attack had been repulsed.

There was great activity by the artillery during the night along the front between the Aisne and the Marne and northeast toward Rheims.

The text of the statement follows:
"The night was marked by great artillery activity between the Marne and the Aisne and in the Courten
and Roi woods, in the Rheims sector."

"At 9 o'clock last night the Germans launched a counter-attack
west of Rheims in the region of Vrigny. French troops broke all assaults and held their positions infact."

"There are no events of importance to report from the rest of the front."

Each day's operations bring further proof of the completeness with which the genius of General Foch has turned the tables on the Germans.

Instead of slowing down to a condition of what has been called stabilization, as the general public from experience expected, the allies have to push forward in the face of determined and skillful resistance by the Germans who have had time to recover from the first shock of surprise.

The enemy, according to reports
now has 35 divisions in the battle zone—400,000 men of which are in the region north of the Marne in the opinion of military observers the violent German resistance is due more to political considerations for it is to the immediate interests of General Ludendorff from a military standpoint to straighten out his line without delay.

General Foch holds the initiative
on all the battlefronts and, it is believed, it will take the Germans at least two or three months to get up another full-dress offensive. Meanwhile the American troops continue to land.

WEARING GERMANS OUT.

(Associated Press Telegram)

Paris, July 24.—Important gains were realized Tuesday by the allies particularly by the French troops that are bearing seventy per cent of the effect in which they vie in bravery with the Americans, British and Italians. The Havas correspondent at the front says the French are steadily fighting toward Oulchy-Le-Chateau. North of the Marne in an advance of two kilometers (about 1.4 miles) the allies took fortified farms and Barbillion wood. The fighting he adds, surpasses in violence that of the March and May offensives and the Germans rapidly are being worn out. The wild talk of the German official statements,

he says, proves more than anything else the confusion in Germany. The Germans may delay their retreat by paying a costly price but the necessity of reconstructing their general reserves soon will oblige them to straighten their front between Soissons and Rheims.

ALLIES PRESSING FORWARD.

(Compiled from A. P. Dispatches.)

In spite of the desperate efforts of the Germans to bring up reserves
and stabilize the lines on each side of the salient from Soissons to Rheims, the allies appear to be pressing forward in vital sectors on the front, south of Soissons and near Rheims.

Following its policy of conservatism the French war office reports nothing but heavy artillery-fire around the salient and the repulse of a German counter-attack in the region of Vrigny, five miles southwest of Rheims. Nothing is said as to progress against the increased German resistance north of the Marne, nor is there mention of the situation north of Montdidier, where on Tuesday morning the French took positions dominating long reaches of the Aisne river.

From unofficial sources it is reported that the rainy weather of the last few days has slowed up the fighting between Soissons and Rheims and probably also has retarded the German retirement from the bag in which the crown prince's forces were caught by General Mangini's thrust against the western side of the salient. Allied war men report conditions back of the German lines as indicative of a German retreat as far north as the Vesle river. The line of the Ourcq has been virtually rendered untenable by the allies' advance to the neighborhood of Oulchy-Le-Chateau and Oulchy-Le-Ville,
north of the stream.

Just south of Soissons the French and Americans are known to have reached the western bank of the Crise river, but there have been no reports of a further advance in this vital region. Should the allies succeed in crossing the Crise in force and in gaining the plateau to the eastward of that stream, German oc-

AMERICAN CAVALRY USED IN FIGHTING

(Associated Press Telegram)

With the American Army on the Aisne-Marne Front, July 24.—(12:50
p. m.)—Along the line, north of Chateau-Thierry, the Franco-American forces have driven the Germans
out of nearly all of the Chatelet forest.

The allied advance was made in considerable jumps in that area. The Germans continue their rear-guard fighting and depending much upon their machine guns.

Further to the west the American gained the ascendancy over the Germans and drove through and beyond the town of Epiedes.

American cavalry was used at one point in the operations north of the Chateau-Thierry line.
To the northward the most intense resistance was offered along the extended German right flank, but the
made gains and that the Germans reports are that the allies have been unable to halt the movement toward their lines of supplies.

HUNS FIGHTING DESPERATELY TO RETAIN POSSESSION OF RAILWAY

Washington, July 24.—The advance of the allied and American forces around the Aisne-Marne salient has been practically steady for the last two days, General March, chief-of-staff, said today, despite the fact that 15 fresh divisions of German troops have been thrown into the fighting at Soissons and on the line south of there.

The Germans are fighting desperately to retain the single railway line remaining in their hands, over which heavy material can be removed as they retreat, General March said.

If that railway, running from Fismes to Fere-en-Tardenois is reached by the allied troops, General March said, German forces remaining in the salient will be pocketed.

On the Rheims side of the salient official reports show the enemy has been thrown back an average distance of a mile and a half on a 10-mile front despite heavily wooded country and high ground to aid his defense. The area lost by the Germans during the last week, the general said, about equals that gained by them on the Flanders front in April.

The chief-of-staff announced that he had ordered six new infantry divisions organized in this country during July, stationed respectively
at Camp Devens, Mass., Mead, Md., Sheridan, Ala., Custer, Mich., Funston, Kas., and Lewis, Wash.

Two regular infantry regiments will form the nucleus of each new division. Home guards have replaced regulars at interior guard posts for this purpose and the regulars are now moving to the camps designated, General March said. Aside from the six new infantry regiments of regulars,

the divisions will be composed of national army troops.

The chief-of-staff said the American divisions he mentioned last Saturday as involved in the fighting were still constantly engaged. He added no additional American units
to those already known to be on the line in this region.

In discussing the situation on the Aisne-Marne line, General March said it bore striking similarity to what had happened to the Austrian drive into Italy. A great storm had cut off the advancing Austrians on the Piave line, he said, and disaster resulted. Similarly, a heavy storm masked the movement of tanks and troops when General Foch struck on the Soissons-Chateau-Thierry front and the Germans were taken completely by surprise.

General March said it seemed that the Lord was getting tired of the partnership of "Mc Lud Gott."

The French attack of yesterday
north of Montdidier on the Picardy front is viewed, General March said, as a local operation not directly involved in the strategy of the Aisne-Marne battle front. It has great value, however, he said, and it serves to keep the Germans guessing.

GERMAN LOSS IN RECENT BATTLES MAY REACH 180,000

With the French Army in France, Tuesday, July 23.—Tuesday was another successful day for the allies
along the entire battle front.

The bag of prisoners captured by the French northwest of Montdidier numbered more than 1,500. The victory was gained with very slight losses.

Further southward on the northern side of the Marne, American and French troops met several strong German attacks to which they responded with vigorous counter-attacks, as a result of which the allied line again was advanced.

The Americans made their gains in heavy fighting in the vicinity of the Bar-billion wood. On the eastern side of the salient the French and British advanced an average of one kilometer. The British increased the number of prisoners taken in three days to 1,100 by capturing 300.

Approximately 180,000 dead,
wounded and prisoners have been lost by the Germans since July 15.
The enemy continues to burn stores
and munitions within the salient, evidently being fearful that the future will see him driven back much farther.

FIERCE FIGHTING BETWEEN GERMANS AND AMERICANS

(Associated Press Telegram)

London, July 24.—There was fierce fighting Tuesday between the Americans and the Germans along the crests northeast of Chateau-Thierry says a dispatch from Reuters correspondent on the French front.

In the morning the enemy retook Epiedes and the hamlet of Trigny, a mile to the south. The Americans counter-attacked and re-entered Trigny and continued to press back
the Germans who still held Epiedes
the dispatch was filed.

In the region between Mont St.
Pere and Chateaufort the French and Americans pushed forward two miles, capturing a number of fortified farms. The Americans completed their occupation of the Bar-billion wood.

A number of fires are visible behind the German lines. At some places the enemy is burning his stores while elsewhere they have been set on fire by allied shells. A great fire has been burning in the important base of Fere-en-Tardenois since Monday evening.

Peace Conference is the Suggestion of Germans To Spanish Government

(Associated Press Telegram)
Amsterdam, July 24.—Germany has made suggestions for a peace conference to the Spanish government, says the socialist Vorwaerts of Berlin.

The suggestions are:

- First: Germany wants no annexations or indemnities in the west.
- Second: The peace treaties with Russia and Rumania may not be questioned.
- Third: The principle of self determination of peoples has not been discussed but may be settled at the peace conference where the fate of Belgium also is to be settled.
- Fourth: The Balkan question is to be settled around the conference table.
- Fifth: The freedom of the seas, the dismantling of Gibraltar and the Suez canal and the right for Germany to use coaling stations.
- Sixth: The colonial question is to be settled on the basis of the status quo.

The Vorwaerts considers this a very reasonable peace agreement.

The term "status quo" applied in the foregoing to the German colonial question has been rather loosely used in the past in connection with the solution of various peace problems. In general it has been employed as an abbreviation of the term "status quo ante bellum."

Germany's position heretofore as indicated by her leading statesmen, has been one of insistence upon the return of her colonies and there has been nothing in the recent utterances of the German leaders tending to show that this attitude has been changed. It was even indicated that the "paw" held by Germany in the shape of Belgium was intended to be used to secure the giving back of her former colonial possessions.

WILL NOT BE LEFT TO ROUND TABLE CONFERENCE.

(Associated Press Telegram)

Washington, July 24.—In the peace suggestions which the Berlin Vorwaerts declares the German government is about to advance to the entente and America through the Spanish government, officials here detect the German design, embodied in some shape in almost every one of the peace proposals which have emanated from Berlin or Vienna to leave to a round table conference

the actual solution of peace terms.
President Wilson and Premier Lloyd George of Great Britain and Premier Clemenceau of France
have recorded themselves definitely that no peace conference will be entered unless there has been an acceptance by the central powers of the exact terms upon which the conference is to be conducted and of the broad principles to govern the negotiations.

FRENCH HOLD UP DESPATCH OF THE GERMAN RESERVES

(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, July 24.—Attacks by the French at Montdidier with the capture of several towns and an advance of nearly two miles, and a continuation of the British "ribbling" tactics along the northern front, were believed today to have disrupted the plans of the German big command to send reinforcements to endangered troops in the Soissons-Rheims salient.
"With the Franco-American troops making a steady advance between Soissons and Chateau-Thierry and French, British and Italian forces battering away on the German flank from the vicinity of Rheims, fresh German reserves had been called from more northern points, along the front. The French by their sharp attack yesterday at Montdidier, it was pointed out today, have probably held up the despatch of these reserves. In the meantime the position of the enemy in the pocket-like salient between the Marne and the Aisne grows more dangerous. Unfavorable weather conditions interfered to some extent with the allied advance in this region yesterday, but with the drying of the terrain and the return of more favorable conditions for air-fighting the gradual closing in of the mouth of the salient is expected to continue. Whether the Germans will be able to escape before the jaws of General Foch's pincer-movement closes in will soon be known.
Possibilities of the Montdidier attack developing into more than a local operation designed to hold back the German reserves was seen by many officials. In the opinion of some it was another indication of the taking of an offensive position by the allied troops all along the front.
The beginning of an offensive on the Picardy sector, signs of which have been seen, would furnish the final proof that General Foch has decided that American troops have reached France in sufficient numbers to outweigh German numerical superiority and that the time has arrived to assume offensive tactics at all points.

cupation of Soissons would probably be short-lived. Such an advance also would make the line of the Vesle of slight advantage to the Germans and would probably compel their eventual retirement to the Aisne river. For this eastward of allied efforts to force eastward of the Aisne may be expected to be re-echoed in the German resistance at this point probably will be of the sternest character.
The great White Star liner, Justicia, bound for America from a British port, has been sunk by a German submarine. She had taken a shipload of American troops to Europe, and when sunk was carrying only her own crew and probably a very few American soldiers who were returning home. Eleven of the crew are reported to have been killed. Reports from Amsterdam quoted the Socialist newspaper, Vorwaerts, of Berlin, as saying that Germany has made use of the good offices of Spain in suggesting to the allies that a peace conference should be held. The terms suggested as the basis for negotiations appear to be in substance much the same as those which have been advanced several times by German statesmen in the recent past. If the report is true this is the first time, however, that peace suggestions have been made in the usual diplomatic way—through a neutral government.

ARMY OF CROWN PRINCE CONTINUES TO LOSE GROUND

(Associated Press Telegram)
With the American Army on the Aisne-Marne front, Tuesday, July 23.—The armies of Petain and Pershing have forced their way through rain-soaked woods and fields further into the German lines. The strategy of General Foch apparently called for the delivery of smashing blows today and at numerous points crack divisions of the army of the German crown prince were forced to give ground before the French and Americans.
The day closed with the Germans having been pushed well back at many points by the Franco-American attacks which followed a night of heavy artillery-fire.

ALLIES ADVANCE IN FACE OF RESERVES

(Associated Press Telegram)
With the American Army on the Aisne-Marne front, July 24, 7:30 a. m.—The French, British and the Americans are still hammering the flanks of the Crown Prince's army. The Germans are known to have brought up fresh forces at some points but the allies report the situation as favorable.
More favorable weather conditions brought out droves of aircraft this morning. The day an excellent one for observation and this is expected to change the character of the fight somewhat, especially with regard to the artillery.
The chance for the better in the weather conditions took place during the night when the clouds disappeared and the wind died down. Scarcely a dust-cloud could be seen this morning on any part of the wide spread battle field with the exception of the spurts rising from the thousands of craters made by the guns on both sides.

GERMAN NEWS BUREAU KILLS AMERICANS BY THE HUNDREDS OF THOUSANDS

(Associated Press Telegram)
Amsterdam, July 24.—Telegraphing from the Aisne-Marne battle front under date of Tuesday evening the correspondent of the Wolff Bureau, the semi-official German news agency says:
"Continuing their attack between the Aisne and the Marne the French for the first time employed American cannon fodder in comparatively large numbers, as an addition to their Senegalese auxiliaries.
"Dense masses of blacks and Americans were hurled against the German lines. They paid for it in some hundred thousand of killed negroes and Americans. In some places they advanced to attack sixteen waves deep. One wave after the other broke down in the German artillery and machine gun fire.
"Next day they renewed their assault seven times with gradually lessening force.
"On the third day the American infantry began to halt at the first rush, throwing themselves down as soon as the German artillery commenced. When the firing continued they retired rapidly so that at times their attack became a hurried flight.
"On many occasions the German infantry stood up in the trenches and while standing there received the Americans with salvos of rifle fire.
"In the attack on July 21 American battalions of the Second division, advancing through the ravine of Visioneux were caught in the fire of German machine guns which covered the ravine from the sugar works at Novant. They immediately turned and fled.
"American casualties on July 19 and 20, especially officers were exceptionally severe. Prisoners say some regiments were annihilated."

OFFICIALS STATE GERMAN STATEMENT IS MOST RIDICULOUS

(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, July 24.—The Wolff bureau despatch coming by way of Amsterdam today purporting to picture "tremendous sacrifices among the American troops in the great offensive and containing carefully phrased reference to the Americans being pushed forward with black troops is characterized by officials here as the same sort of an attempt to create a depression in the United States as German official and semi-official channels have repeatedly turned upon the French and the British.
Any reference to the American troops as cannon fodder is obviously ridiculous. It is well known that they have been brigaded with British and French troops as well as operating by divisions among themselves. Any statement that any particular class of troops has been picked for sacrifice is said by officials to be almost unworthy of notice.
Everyone here concedes that the American forces have probably suffered heavy casualties. How heavy has not yet begun to appear in the official lists.
Last Saturday General March, chief of staff, gave warning that the operations would cost some thing but added that the government had as yet no knowledge of what it would be.
From time to time the German official statements have attempted to create depression and dissension in Great Britain's colonies by declaring that the Canadian and Australian troops were being sacrificed on the first lines. Then the German propaganda turned to the French with insidious statements that the French territorialists, including the Senegalese army brigade on the western front,

willing to discuss peace is accepted by all of the great entente powers as representative of their own desires. Officials here point out that Germany is quite well aware of these conditions and consequently they can only view this reported new attempt at peace negotiations as another appeal to the pacifist elements in the entente and also as an attempt to quiet the uneasy social elements within the central powers who are believed to be again in a dangerous mood.
Action Secretary of State Polk said the new terms seemd more favorable to Germany than any that had been made hitherto.
Germany's renunciation of any designs on western territory in consideration of her retention of the spoils she has wrung from Russia and Rumania through the Brest-Litavsk and Jassy treaties, it is also pointed out, is directly at variance with President Wilson's declaration, seconded by Great Britain of his firm intention to stand behind Russia.
Finally as a further evidence that these new peace suggestions are unacceptable officials call attention to President Wilson's firm declaration that the wrong done to France in 1870 through the seizure by Germany of Alsace-Lorraine and the wrong done to Belgium in her enforced occupation by Germany must be undone. Consequently officials hold that these great issues cannot be left to any round table conference.
It also is noted that Vorwaerts is not representative of the German government in any sense; that it is the Socialistic mouthpiece and that it would be the last among the great German papers to be in a position to set out the purpose of the government in ordinary conditions.
With the American Army in France July 24.—Dr. George Michalis, the former German imperial chancellor is reported by a prisoner to be now commanding a German territorialists, including the Senegalese army brigade on the western front,

An announcement is expected this week in order to permit Liberty loan workers and business interests to arrange for the campaign.

UNCOVER FRAUD AND PROFITEERING IN ARMY CONTRACTS

(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, July 24.—Fraud and gross profiteering has been uncovered in many contracts for army shoes, shirts, leggings, overcoats and other soldiers supplies and equipment as a result of investigation by army intelligence and departments of justice agents, it was learned today.
Information shedding light on methods by which manufacturers were able to evade rigid inspection tests and pass inferior articles to fill government contracts is understood to have been gathered from new confessions of some of the 18 raincoat contractors under arrest in New York, charged with bribery, fraud or conspiracy.
Action will be taken against the other manufacturers as rapidly as specific proof of fraud is developed, it was said. In some cases officials plan to give publicity to the practices without undertaking criminal prosecutions. The reason for this, it was explained, is that government agents have evidence of irregularity and profiteering in hundreds of contracts without the substantiating proof on which conviction might be based.
An outgrowth of the campaign against graft and fraud in army contracts, caused largely, it was charged, by the illegal system of negotiating orders through commission fee agents, is the discovery that a number of officers in the quartermaster corps are responsible for placing contracts, continue illegally to receive salaries from concerns which employed them in civil life. A large number of officers, particularly in the quartermaster corps are said to have been given commissions through the influence of their former employers. These officers subsequently used their influence to obtain commissions for others similarly situated and it is charged that certain companies or groups of concerns have been able through this personal contact to dictate specifications and other details of contracts favorable to their method of manufacture.

CREWS OF FISHING SCHOONERS ARE SAFE

(Associated Press Telegram)
Portland, Maine, July 24.—All those on the Gloucester fishing schooners Robert and Richard sunk by a German submarine off the coast of Maine Monday, had been accounted for today. There were 23 persons on the vessels. Three men were landed at Kennebec port and eleven at this port last night. Four more were brought in here today and four men and a boy were picked up at sea and taken to Boston.
The fishermen who arrived here today were picked up by a naval patrolboat. The four men and the boy taken to Boston were rescued at sea by a tug and transferred to a naval boat.
Captain Robert Whwrtan and his men were interviewed by the naval authorities. Search for the enemy submarine continued today.
Scores of patrolboats were cruising up and down the main coast and hydroaeroplanes were on the lookout from above.

WANT BALL PLAYERS TO JOIN THE NAVY

Great Lakes, Ills., July 24.—Every big baseball player in the country is to be invited to join the navy at once according to letters being prepared today by Ensign W. L. Denny, recruiting officer at the naval station here under the direction of Captain William A. Moffett, commandant.
"We are asking them to join the navy because we want the best men we can get," Captain Moffett declared. "However, there will be no special ratings for them but we will give them the best ratings for which they can qualify."

AMUSEMENTS

TOMORROW IS CIRCUS DAY

Coop and Lent's up-to-the-minute motorized circus and menagerie will be welcomed by hundreds of curious citizens tomorrow morning and many of them will get up long before daylight to see the gigantic float of 38 motorized circus trucks roll into town and settle down for the day. As the mighty circus glides onto the circus lot many will say, "I don't think it could be done." It is a reality—the motorized circus built by the Service Auto company of Wabash, Indiana, at a cost of half a million dollars. Then at 10:30 a. m. the glittering, dazzling autos in gay bright colors will roll majestically through the principal streets and many old and new will be heard on all sides. Bands and more bands, happy clowns, open dens of wild jungle animal, prancing horses ridden by charming ladies and athletic men—and last comes the magnificent elephants and awkward looking camels—back to the circus lot and the fun begins. Among the many big sensational features are: Battle Julian, a daring and most thrilling bareback rider in truly remarkable feats of equestrianism; the Tun Chin Chinese Troupe of circus performers; the Khoda Royal troupe of college bred horses; Marguerite and Hanley Troupe acrobats; butterflies; Fondle Prio, sensational acrobat; Rae Thompson, high school bridge high jumping horses; the famous Davenport, a company of the greatest riders America has ever produced, and a hundred other novelties new to the circus world. Coop and Lent's motorized circus, and thirty-two funny clowns will close 150 minutes of the greatest amusement the world affords. The doors will be opened at 1 and 2 p. m. The performance starts one hour later.

Milady's Boudoir

Few women will take the time to give their hair the proper attention required to keep it in a healthy condition during the summer months, yet at this season we must double the care usually given if we desire to preserve its beauty.

In the first place the hair must be shampooed frequently and washed in the hair when the water is warm.

Every morning the hair should be allowed to hang free for five or ten minutes exposed to the sunlight so that the scalp will be thoroughly dried.

At night brush the hair loosely and never twist or pin the hair about the head as this is the surest way to split and thin your hair.

The instant the hair part is through the center from the forehead to the nape of the neck, in order that the air and scalp may circulate where it so seldom has a chance to reach.

Then take a brush and divide the hair into small strands, brushing each strand separately and drawing the brush in long even strokes from the part to the ends.

The instant you detect a sour odor about your hair it must be washed at once. This may mean that a weekly shampoo will be needed, but under no circumstances allow it to continue in this condition. If there is a tendency to oiliness it is far better to shampoo the hair once with a good hair soap longer and invite thinness. This mixture is recommended for oily hair.

The hair should be washed thoroughly in warm water twice and then rinsed in lukewarm water until the scalp is free from soap. Now rinse with cold water and then in cold. Shake well and dry by rubbing the hair with towels and allow the sunlight to strike the hair for twenty-five minutes. If the hair is very heavy it should remain in the sunlight until very dry and fluffy.

Our Boys and Girls

Outing flannel, used so much for boys' clothes, is not suitable for baby as it is a cotton material and holds no protection for the little one against the weather. A good grade of flannel for petticoats is best and a good way to finish the skirts is to embroider a scallop, or another way is to turn up a two inch hem and feather stitch in a wavy line, cutting the flannel off close to the stitching on the under side.

The petticoats are best made on little pieces of muslin. Do not forget the drawing strings in the necks for these little waists, for it is most important to make the petticoats, tear from one side a strip all the way down, and five inches wide. These will make the first bands for the baby. The nurse will cut them the proper length and they can be used on the newcomer for several weeks.

Every Day Etiquette

"When a young man takes me to a place of amusement, should I ask him to come in after we come home, or is it best not to do so?" was Nan's problem.

"If the hour is not late, and it is convenient for the family, it is all right to ask the young man into the house," answered her aunt.

It is the original and has been on the market since 1907, and every year it has relieved hundreds of people of their Ear Troubles. LET THIS CREAM CURE YOUR PIMPLES

For several weeks past T. J. Evans has done a big business in selling Hokara, the skin healer that has won so many friends in Newark. It has been found to heal not only all minor skin troubles, such as pimples, blackheads, herpes, acne, scaly scalp, complexion blemishes, itching feet, piles, etc., but also the worst sores, ulcers, or even chronic eczema and salt rheum. There is yet to be found any form of wound or disease affecting the skin, or mucous membrane that Hokara does not help, and its action is so quick that those who try it are simply delighted with it right from the start.

In spite of its unusual curative powers, the price is trifling, to convince even one of its merits T. J. Evans will sell a liberal-sized jar for 35c. And remember that if you do not think it does what it claims, you can get your money back. You certainly can afford to try it on this plan.—Advertisement.

Announcement is made of the marriage of Miss Theresa F. Assmann of Columbus, to John H. Yankee, a soldier of Newark. The wedding took place at Long Branch, N. J., on Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock, Rev. Father A. Lacasse solemnizing the ceremony.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James W. Yankee of this city, and is stationed at Camp Vail, New Jersey.

At 5:30 Monday afternoon in St. Paul's Episcopal church, Columbus, the marriage of Miss Martha Fieser to Mr. Woodruff J. Rankin of Chicago, will be solemnized by the pastor, Rev. Sidney E. Sweet, in the presence of a small company of friends and relatives. Miss Dorothy Fieser, sister of the bride-elect, will come from Bryn Mawr college farm, where she is spending the summer, to act as maid-of-honor, and Mr. Rankin, stationed at Camp Wheeler, Ga., will bring a military man with him as best man. It is expected that Mr. Louis F. Fieser, brother of the bride-elect, now at Williamstown, Mass., will come to give the bride away.

Mr. Rankin formerly resided in Newark with his mother, Mrs. Eliza Rankin, before moving to Chicago. He is a nephew of Mr. Ernest F. Johnson of Hudson avenue.

Mrs. Willis H. Sawyer of Marble Cliff and Mrs. C. W. Foulk of King avenue, Columbus, come to Newark tomorrow to speak at a meeting of Child Welfare Leagues, Parent-Teachers' Associations, and other educational organizations of several combined country districts.

Mrs. Glenn I. Stowell entertained the members of the Progressive Embroidery club Friday afternoon at her home in Hoover street. After a short business session the afternoon was pleasantly spent in various kinds of needlework and a spirited contest in which Mrs. Walter Fieser received the club prize and Mrs. Frank Reese the guest prize. Dainty refreshments were served to the members of the club and guests, Mrs. Joseph Robe, Mrs. J. Farrer, Mrs. Paul Sachs and Mrs. Frank Reese. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Lee Bratton in Western avenue, July 26.

Roby-McCartney.

This morning at 10 o'clock Dr. L. C. Sparks united in marriage Mr. Ray L. Roby of Dennison, O., and Miss Daisy McCartney, Mrs. Roby is a soldier stationed at Camp Sherman for the present and his bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert McCartney of Franklin avenue.

Surrounded by all the beauties of nature, relatives, friends and neighbors numbering about seventy, assembled, Friday, July 19, at the home of Rev. Mr. and Mrs. T. N. Madden in Hebron, O., in honor of their seventy-fifth and seventieth birthday anniversaries, respectively.

This surprise was carefully planned and executed by their children: Mrs. White, Mrs. Kapp and the Misses May and Florence Madden, and brother, Harlan. The weather was ideal. Chairs were placed on the lawn and the large and congenial circle of friends enjoyed a pleasant social time.

All joined in singing "America," after which Rev. T. B. White made a few appropriate remarks in a pleasing manner and was followed by a number of others.

F. E. Slabaugh indulged in reminiscences, while Colonel W. D. Burch extended greetings from the Grand Army of the Republic, of which Rev. Mr. Madden is a worthy member.

Rev. H. H. Carter dilated upon the assistance and inspiration that Rev. Mr. Madden had been to him as pastor of the church. Others spoke of the great hospitality and many Christian virtues of this family in years past. To all of these Rev. Mr. Madden responded in a very appreciative manner, in which words were not lacking, but ability to utter them was difficult.

Delicious refreshments were served during the afternoon. Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Madden serving their birthday cakes, lighted by seventy-five red and seventy white candles.

Rev. Mr. Madden and wife are highly respected citizens of Hebron, having lived here many years and reared a large and well-known family.

MUST KEEP ON 'MAKING GOOD'

Men Who Have Accomplished Great Things Cannot Afford to Rest on Their Laurels.

"We were talking about a young man here in New York. Said one: 'Till tell you why that chap is such a wonder. The minute he winds up one big job he goes after another. He wastes no time patting himself on the back for past achievements. When he finishes putting something over he turns around and says in regard to his own performance—'Oh, that wasn't much. I have got to beat that.' Now I must get to work and really do something. Then he pitches into a fresh job as if he had never accomplished a thing in his life."

"In other words, you have not only got to do good work, but you have got to repeat and keep on repeating if you want the world to continue to respect you."

"The other day a famous author was telling me how he felt when his first story was accepted. He said that within a few minutes the thought flashed through his mind that he could not stop—but must go on. One good story must be followed by another and another and another—else his reputation would die and he would be humiliated. He said that the feeling was not exactly comfortable—that the prospect was in a way terrible. 'Being successful,' he said, is not easy. The successful man advertises to the world that he can do certain things well—and he must go on making good or back off the map. It's a great sensation, a great experience—worth almost anything—but it isn't a snap."

"It is the same way in business. The salesman who sets a high mark has to go right out and beat that mark or suffer by comparison with his own record. He can't sit down in a rocking chair and devote the rest of his life to receiving congratulations."

"Have you ever sat in a restaurant and compared your job with that of a waiter. Try it sometime. No matter what your work is I am sure you will see the point if you watch the waiter and think how exactly his work typifies yours. Take, for example, my job—that of an editor. An editor's job is exactly like that of a waiter. He has to go and get something good and bring it in. And after he has brought it in he has to go right out and get something more and bring that in. The minute he sits down or stops to talk unnecessarily with the guests, he ceases to give as good service as before. Then the guests who praised him a moment ago begin to growl. And so, almost immediately, he has turned from a good servant into a poor one."

"This fits any line of human activity. A continuous performance is what is wanted. Nothing else counts."—Said in American Magazine.

Oldest Living Woman.

In the city of Posen, in the German province of the same name, the oldest woman in the world is about to enter upon her one hundred thirty-fourth year of her life, unless death has overtaken her since the receipt of the latest news from that part of Europe. She is Frau Gretchen Dutkewitz, and she has spent practically all her life in Posen. She was a young woman when Napoleon and his legions swept like a conflagration over Europe, and has lived to see a similar catastrophe engulf almost the entire civilized world. Frederick the Great was still alive when Frau Dutkewitz was born, and only a few years before Voltaire had gone to his rest. The German empire of today was then an aggregation of petty, warring states, and the American Union had just been born out of the travail of revolution. These centuries—the eighteenth, the nineteenth and the twentieth—this woman has seen, and within the compass of her lifetime a new civilization has sprung up in Europe and America, a civilization now in the balance, and threatened by the land which gave her birth.—New York World.

Fearless Cook.

M. Paul Biraute, editor of the Bulletin des Armees de la Republique, who recently returned to Paris from a visit to the British front, is a man of discernment. The day after he had witnessed a battle, seeing it all "from the artillery preparation up to the wave of assault," he was asked, at the general's table, what had impressed him most. He promptly replied: "The kitchens of the Royal Dublin Fusiliers. Amongst all those soldiers," he added, "who rivaled each other in courage, those who seemed to me the finest were the cooks, who, unarmed, under the shell fire, polished up their pots and pans as if their kitchen on wheels were appearing in a review." Anyone might have noticed it, of course; but then most people, in all probability, would not.

Hence His Wail.

"Why so unhappy, my man?"

"I've just been caught embezzling funds of the company."

"Well, cheer up. Now that you have confessed perhaps they won't prosecute you."

"Oh, it isn't that. I've paid back the money and they've agreed not to send me to jail."

"Then why so dismal now?"

"They won't let me keep my job, too, and it was such a soft snap."—Reb-both Sunday Herald.

Women Pay on the Dot.

The purchasing power of the British Isles has passed into the hands of women to an unprecedented extent as a result of the European war. One result of this change in conditions, landlords say, is that they are receiving their rent more regularly.

SOLDIERS' LETTERS

Editor of The Advocate—I received your letter and medal some time ago, but this is the first opportunity I've had to acknowledge its receipt.

I wish to thank The Advocate and the people of Licking county for thinking so much of the boys that are in the service and I know there isn't one of us that doesn't appreciate it more than words can tell. I feel grateful to know that the people of my home—down the back of us, in the three months of my service have been from Pensacola, Fla., to Boston, Mass., and I find that the further north you go the better an enlisted man is treated, and I guess Newark is holding up here end of it. You wished to know if there was anybody from Newark here. Michael Monahan of 324 1/2 East Main street, is in the same division that I'm in and I know he would appreciate a line from you. As it is about time for the liberty party to shove off I'll have to close, hoping this finds everything going fine in Newark. I remain, yours respectfully, Harley F. Smart.

P. S.—Would be glad to hear from any of my friends. Address, Harley F. Smart, receiving ship, Commonwealth Pier, Boston, Mass.

Editor of The Advocate:

I received the medal presented to men in the service by the people of Licking County several weeks ago, and I regret that I have waited so long to acknowledge it. I was certainly very glad to get it, and wish to thank the people at home for this reminder that they are thinking of us. It is the only one of its kind I have seen. So far I have not got very far away. I have been in the service for six months, in which time I have been stationed in Illinois, Texas, New York, and here. The prospect for getting across still seems vague. The push that seems to have started these last few days makes us all the more anxious to get through training. With renewed appreciation of the medal, Very truly, A. Lowell Johnson, Post Field, Fort Sill, Okla.

The following letter, postmarked Southampton, and written while at sea, has been received by Mrs. A. C. Kelly, 102 Hancock street, from her brother, Private Albert Mitchell, who is serving with the American Expeditionary Forces.

At Sea, June 1918.

Dear Sir:

Just a line to let you know that I am well and certainly hope all of you are the same. Well Sister after a long and very tiresome but interesting trip we are hearing the end of our journey and take it from me we will all be pretty glad when it is over.

There isn't much of interest that I can tell you though for we have to be very careful about what we write and after it is all written about all there is to it is "hello, I am well, hope you are the same, good luck, and good bye."

I filled out a card before we sailed and if nothing happens you will receive it long before you do this as that never left the port from which we sailed so it will get to you about three weeks' sooner than if I had waited until I got over here to let you know whether we landed safely or not.

I passed where brother Jim was maneuvering when he wrote you last. There were very few cases of seasickness and what few there was was easily kept down. I am sure I have had ideal sailing weather so far. The weather is something like California weather along the coast for the mornings are nice and warm and then it gets very chilly about noon and stays that way until the next morning.

We passed quite a number of whale and other large fish and saw one shark very distinctly as it turned over right alongside the Transport. Well, as this is about all I can say at present, say goodbye for this time. Your loving brother, Albert.

Corporal Paul Mossman, son of Joseph Mossman, 38 Cottage street, writes the following interesting letter to Ralph Mossman, his brother:

"Somewhere in France."

"Dear Ralph—I have had a peep at some of the cities and towns on this side of the Atlantic, not to mention quite a bit of the country in between."

"Everything is different from what we see back home. All of the buildings of a town look almost alike. The next place may be entirely different. This is because each place is built of local material—limestone, brownstone, red or gray brick or concrete. The farms are the same. One locality will have iron fences, another will have hedges—while in the hills stone walls are all the rage."

"I am feeling fine. The only thing that bothers me is my heavy pack. Write often. Your brother, Corporal Paul Mossman, 'Battery B, 324th H. F. A.'"

Just a Flower.

Here comes a market basket filled with meat, potatoes, turnips, onions, cauliflower and radishes, a substantial supply for the hungry household, but peeping out from these varied table needs is a flower, blooming from a little pot down among the potatoes. What a world of melody its happy presence imparts! There is a soul in that family desire sure enough. We looked at the good woman who carried the basket and saw in her countenance something fairer than appetite; a sense of beauty that put a smile on her face and a gladness in her heart. That was a sign of the love that she had for her family responsibility; somewhat to grace the table and lend a charm to the family life. Amid the dull necessities of life she had planted a little flower. What radiance it would bring to her modest household, and how God would thank her for it!—Columbus Ohio State Journal.

Many a fellow falls in love without taking a tumble to himself.

HARD TO TRANSLATE BIBLE

Considerable Amount of Ingenuity Required to Make Words Fit Savage Knowledge.

How much do you suppose an Eskimo knows about an olive? Or a Hottentot about the Holy Ghost?

That's why the men and women who translate the Bible into pagan languages have to use a greater amount of ingenuity and imagination than anything else, observes a writer in the World Outlook.

It must have been a very pleasant person who finally suggested to the mingled relief and amusement of the tired workers, that "the lamb of God" might just as well be translated "the little seal of God," in the Eskimo Bible. Eskimo children have the same tenderness toward the funny little things with their mournful eyes and soft fur that other children have toward baby sheep.

The Eskimo Bible was one of the most difficult to translate, and has just been finished after 250 years of work. Of course, to a half frozen, fur-clad people, living in igloos—or is it harpoons?—and surrounded by polar bears and walrus, it is next to impossible to translate the story of the bright, colored, sun-drenched holy land. The language of a northern people is necessarily lacking in dozens of words and phrases, and, too often, even ideas.

But Bible translating is like Greek grammar—there's an exception to every rule. The Zulus live in a country as warm and tropical as the holy land on the pleasantest of days, but the Zulu Bible has offered about as many difficulties as any respectable task has a right to offer.

In the first place, the earliest translation was made by more than thirty people working independently. Despite its inaccuracy and inconsistency, it was extremely popular among the natives; it even shaped Zulu thought so completely that every paragraph of the Zulu newspaper teems with Bible vocabulary. But it was inaccurate. Many of the mistakes were, of course, extremely amusing. The translators found to their surprise that instead of crossing the Red sea and the Jordan dry shod, the children of Israel went over thirsty. And a literal translation of the promise that enemies should melt away before them, was discovered to mean in Zulu idiom that their enemies should be as happy as men full of beer.

In 1901 a new translation was begun. There were still many difficulties. How were the translators, for instance, to describe as in Isaiah 3, 18-24, the entire wardrobe of a Jewess at the height of the nation's civilization to the Zulu debutante who in the heaviest winter season wears little more than a string of scarlet beads?

On the Channel Patrol.

"The weather round about here has been too damnable for words lately, and life on a patrol boat has been no cinch. Came down harbor yesterday in a regular blizzard—could barely see fifty yards ahead at times, about three inches of snow all over the ship—freezing like the devil. There's an infernal no'westerly wind blowing, and this packet rolls about like a sick-headache. It's no joke monkeying about in a tiny craft of this size, hunting 'tin fishes.' In daylight it's bad enough, but at night it's extremely dangerous, as one can't see the seas and one's liable to half swamp one's self in turning. And as far as any comfort below goes, there isn't any. Everything is damp and cold, and the steward loses the greater part of your food in bringing it to you, and what you finally receive is a cold unpalatable mess. Yet by Heaven! it's something to be out here having a chance to bag a bally German swine."—Atlantic Magazine.

Learn Something Every Day.

In their antipathy to England and to everything English, or supposedly English, the Germans have apparently undertaken to eliminate from the spoken and written Teutonic language of the day all words of known or suspected English origin. There comes at first hand this episode reported by Prof. F. Sefton Delmer, who is instructor of English in the University of Berlin when the war broke out and who, from that time until May 23 of this year was either a civil or an interned prisoner.

Wishing to make him uncomfortable at a police station one day a porter-fraud, who knew his nationality, rebuked her departing companion for using the word adieu. "Ach was," she called after her, "adieu sagt man nicht mehr. Das ist Englisch."

Kit Rations for Officers.

Those German demigods, the officers of the army, are now on clothing rations like ordinary mortals. They will henceforth only be able to secure new uniforms on clothing cards. The new regulation prescribes just how extensive a wardrobe an officer may have, and he will not be permitted to array himself in excess of its limitations. The only special concession to officers is that they are not required, as civilians are, to declare how much clothing they already possess.

Light Work.

"Mrs. Griddles promised a tramp a good breakfast if he would cut a little wood."

"Well?"

"So the fellow consumed eight or ten biscuits, ham and eggs, some potatoes and two cupsful of coffee."

"And then did he cut a little wood?"

"Yes. He whittled himself a toothpick and said, 'Good morning.'"

Lou can't always tell whether love is blind or merely near-sighted.

THE COURTS

Suit For Money.

Guy Farley filed a petition for judgment in common pleas court yesterday, against Samuel McNaughton.

Plaintiff states that in October, 1917, he entered into a contract with the defendant, contract not being in writing, whereby the plaintiff was to prepare the ground on a farm owned by James Dunlap, to sow wheat on it, cut the wheat and put it into shocks. Plaintiff states that he plowed the ground and sowed the wheat, and then the defendant refused to permit plaintiff to cut and shock it. Then the defendant had the wheat cut and shocked and threshed, and realized 172 bushels of wheat from it, one-third of which was to belong to the plaintiff. McNaughton converted all the wheat to his own use, thereby depriving the plaintiff of his one-third part, which, he claims, is worth $125. Plaintiff, therefore, prays for judgment against the defendant in the sum of $125.

For a second cause of action, Farley wants judgment in the sum of $19.90 due to him for farm work done for McNaughton.

Taken Under Advisement.

In the common pleas court this morning in the case of George Heile against Charles Crooks the court heard the evidence and took the case under advisement.

The litigation grows out of a crop of wheat planted on the farm belonging to George Heile, the defendant claiming a one-half interest in the same.

Good Advice to Women.

Do not be afraid to rest your feet. Sit down at your work whenever you can; a chair in the kitchen is a great foot conservator. On may walk all day long upon two feet without injury, but cannot stand perfectly still, as when paring the dinner vegetables, ironing the small pieces, etc., for a quarter of an hour without a crippling degree of fatigue and a risk of serious injury to the feet.—Chicago Daily News.

GRAND OPENING

Of One of the Most Modern and Up-to-Date Groceries and Meat Markets.

"THE WEST END BASKET GROCERY"

Cor. West Main and Williams Streets.
(Formerly Mastons.)

CONVENIENCE IS COSTLY

Having your groceries delivered to your home is not a necessity, but a convenience, and is therefore a pure waste of money, both on yours and the grocers part. The government requests that you carry your own basket. A "carry-your-own-basket customer" is always a satisfied customer. She comes to the store, chooses what she wants, and carries it home. She has the perfect satisfaction of knowing that she got exactly what she wanted, and at the same time saved the delivery expense.
Our motto is "Carry your own basket and save the difference. If you are fortunate enough to reside near this store, by all means become a regular customer.

gasoline, horseflesh and equipment
—the Newark beer agents had agreed beginning next Monday. Heretofore deliveries have been made upon de-

ELIJAH A. (LIGE) BRYAN

FOR SHERIFF.

To Voters of Licking County, Ohio:
I am a resident of Newark, and a taxpayer of Licking County, and as such I am interested in an efficient as well as an economical administration of public offices.
As a candidate for the nomination for Sheriff on the Democratic Ticket at the primaries to be held August 12th, 1918, I ask your support for the reason that I conscientiously believe that I am fitted and qualified for the office of Sheriff in every respect.
I promise, if nominated and elected, to conduct the office of Sheriff on business lines that will insure economy, efficiency and fair dealing to the taxpayers and the public generally.

ONLY ONE PHONE SYSTEM WILL BE USED IN FUTURE

Washington, July 24.—A forecast of what the new federal system of wire-control will mean to Newark is not a difficult matter, at least in its main phases. The postmaster general, who is to become on July 31 the director general of telegraphs and telephones, already has indicated that he will put Postmaster Chance of this city in charge of the telephones of the national capital.
This is construed as an indication that in each city the local postmaster
is to become the manager of the telephone services under government operation. In Newark, for instance, Postmaster Mercer will become the local telephone manager, if this plan is carried out. Ultimately, the post-master's supervision also probably will be extended over the telegraph service.

In every city like Newark, where there are two telephone services, one or the other will be put out of business and its facilities used as far as possible in strengthening the single system that is to serve the public in the future.

David J. Lewis, who is to be director of operations under Director General Burleson, is a strong advocate of automatic telephones, which dispenses with the services of a central exchange, and it is safe to predict that the telephone service of the future in Newark will be of the automatic type.

BOLSHEVIKI EXECUTES OVER 200 REVOLUTIONISTS

(Associated Press Telegram)
Amsterdam, July 24.—Up to July 19 more than 200 social revolutionists of the Left had been shot by the Bolsheviks for participation in the assassination of Ambassador von Mirbach and in the counter revolution, the German charge at Moscow has been informed by Foreign Minister Tschitcherine, says a dispatch from Berlin.
Among those shot, it is added, was Alexandrovitch vice president of the committee which directed the plot against the German ambassador. An additional 100 persons are under arrest.

CAMP SHERMAN NOTES

(Associated Press Telegram)
Camp Sherman, Chillicothe, O., July 24.—Construction by army engineers of a stretch of seven-eighths of a mile of the main approach to camp will probably be begun early next month, following a mass meeting last night of Chillicothe citizens, who agree to raise $10,000 for cement and tarras if the army would supply other materials and labor.
This road work has the approval of camp authorities, it may be stated, because it will provide some excellent engineering training for the 309th regiment of engineers. The original cost of the work was estimated at $30,000, but two-thirds of this is expected to be saved by using army labor.

The main approach to camp is elsewhere in excellent condition. In the stretch to be improved a 18-foot road way of concrete will be built,
with four foot margins of tarras covering.
Quarters for fifteen women now lodged in the county jail at the instance of Camp Sherman authorities were prepared yesterday at the county infirmary and will be removed there today. The women are suffering from a social disease.

ALLEGED INSPECTOR GETS AWAY WITH A FINE SADDLE HORSE

Frank Hatfield, alias Frank Porter, was arrested in Zanesville last night after he had held up a taxicab driver, and after the Newark police department had scoured the county for him.
Hatfield or Porter secured a saddle horse yesterday from D. J.
Lietz, liverman in South Fourth street. He represented himself as an inspector for the government.
He was given a horse and then stated he was afraid he would run short in funds and gave a check, which he asked to have cashed. It was for $5, and while Hatfield was so nervous he could not write the check and asked Lietz to do it for him. Mr. Lietz took the check. He later found Hatfield had no money in the bank and becoming alarmed reported the matter to the police.
Yesterday afternoon Lietz and Officer Gorman visited the vicinity of Union Station where Hatfield said he was going. No one had seen him there and Chief Sheridan and Lietz visited in the vicinity of Jackson-town and Lurville, and Sunkle and Lietz went north and later South and Lietz scoured the Wilkins Run road and in the vicinity of Hanover,

but no trace of the man was found,
and no one had even seen him.
Today Hatfield was arrested for a hold-up in Zanesville and the horse was located at Adamsville, a town east of Zanesville. Lietz left this afternoon for that place to claim the horse.
Actions speak louder than words,
so it's no wonder our soldiers are anxious to get into action.

WORK ON PLANS FOR OPERATION WIRE SYSTEMS

(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, July 24—Plans for the operation of the telephone and telegraph systems of the country, control of which was taken over by the government yesterday, were being worked out today by Postmaster General Burleson and the committee named to assist him. The postmaster general will act as chairman of the committee, the other members being John C. Koons, first assistant postmaster general; Wm. H. Lamar, collector of the postoffice department, and David J. Lewis, former congressman from Maryland, and now a member of the tariff commission.

Government operation of the wire system will be on a basis of the least possible interference consistent with the interests and needs of the government. Mr. Burleson has announced. Few changes are to be made immediately, it was stated today. First steps will be designed to eliminate the duplication of effort, but no changes which would in any way detract from the efficiency of the systems will be made.

GRANVILLE

(Special to Advocate)
Granville, July 24—The thunder storm yesterday afternoon did much damage throughout the township, besides the tragedy in the Welsh Hills by which one of Granville's best loved physicians lost his life.

The house of Marshall Joe Shipley was struck and a window broken, though that was about the extent of the damage. The telephone system is also greatly damaged, and much inconvenience was experienced by subscribers, especially in securing communication with Newark.

The community "sing" to have been held last evening at the Theodore Baked residence, was called off. The afternoon tragedy, Dr. Follett's sudden death, left no desire to sing even patriotic music, even had the soaking rain earlier in the evening not dampened the ardor of the singers.

Miss Anna Lyon will have as house guests, Mrs. Raymond Burch and son of Shippensburg, Indiana.

The social tea booked for Thursday afternoon, July 25th in the Presbyterian church, will be postponed one week.

Miss Garnet Smith left Tuesday for an extended visit to Cincinnati, Dayton and Triana.

Miss M. L. Lewis of Newark spent the day in Granville, occupying her accustomed place among the A. F. W. workers, and attending as the dinner guest of Miss Clara Wright.

Mr. Edward Richards will entertain the "Three M. and L." club on Friday afternoon of this week at her home in Linwood. Thursday has been pre-empted by Mrs. Van Kirk for the entertainment of the W. C. T. U. chapters of Pataskany and Granville.

The many friends of Mrs. Mary Wilcox will be pleased to learn that instead of being alone, as she always has done, she will be cared for at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Debow, where she was taken yesterday afternoon in an automobile just before the storm.

Her Bad Aim.

"You had better get some cam-pump-bells, the moths are in that warble already," said Newwood to And Luna.

"Oh, dearest, I never could throw straight, so what's the use?"—Pearson.

LIGHTNING BOLT CAUSES DEATH OF DR. A. K. FOLLETT

Special to the Advocate.

Granville, July 24—This whole community was shocked and profoundly grieved at the news which was sent broadcast about six o'clock last evening, that at half past five, Dr. A. K. Follett, a practicing physician of the place had been struck by lightning and instantly killed, while on a visit to his farm, one mile north of Granville in the Welsh Hills. He was out with the man who runs the place, Mr. Zigon, and seeing the storm approaching, the two, with a horse Mr. Zigon was leading, started to enter a wagon shed and granary combined. Dr. Follett was in the lead and just as he opened the door a bolt of lightning struck the building part of it splitting a rafter and running down the corner into the ground, part of it passing through the body of the Doctor, who was knocked senseless. When Mr. Zigon reached him, his pulse was a mere flutter and all efforts to revive him were in vain. Mr. Zigon himself as well as the horse he was leading was knocked flat by the terrific shock of the bolt. The stricken wife was alone at the home in town when the incredible message was telephoned from the farm, and great damage having been done to many of the telephone connections by the lightning it was some time before help reached her. Dr. J. D. Thompson hastened to the house as soon as notified, secured assistance from E. E. Wright who drove him and Mrs. Follett to the fatal scene, but life was already extinct. Sorrowing friends and relatives have surrounded the wife, the daughter Mrs. John Owen and the two little grandsons in their terrible bereavement.

Dr. Follett was a product of Granville and his sudden death is felt by all classes of people who had learned to value him and to love him both as physician and as friend. He came of a professional family, his father, Dr. Alfred Follett having practiced many years in the village and the surrounding country, his brother, the late Dr. George Follett having been at the time of his death one of the most successful of the younger physicians in Columbus.

Dr. Alfred Follett was an alumnus of Denison University, and his medical training was received from his father and from a course in Starling Medical College in Columbus.

He loved nature and the farm was his only relaxation. Indeed he looked forward to his ultimate retirement from practice to spend the remainder of his days in the country.

The funeral service will be held Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

EXPERT HYDRAULIC ENGINEER WILL BE HERE IN FEW DAYS

Repairs were again made at the local water works plant and the pressure was on again last night. It is the aim of the service director to keep the pressure down, so as to prevent another break or blow out until an expert hydraulic engineer can reach the city.

The city council and Mayor Atherton have arranged with Hayes, Whipple & Fuller of New York City to send a hydraulic engineer to Newark and he will reach the city either Thursday night or Friday morning. The expert is being secured to find out just where the trouble lies, and what is necessary to prevent a recurrence of the present trouble.

Readers' Viewpoint

Editor of the Advocate—May I use the columns of your paper to tell the people of Newark of a visit I made yesterday to the pumping station of a neighboring town?

I was talking to the Curtis House at Mt. Vernon, with several acquaintances, and was asked by one who had recently been my guest here, if Newark was still without water. I had to admit that it was and this led a Mt. Vernon friend to suggest that I should see that pumping pump, and through his kindness I was taken by their superintendent to their plant.

Doubtless very few will believe me when I say that I stood there, in the engine room, along side an abandoned steam pump, about the size of a bathtub, and about half the size of ours—though of same capacity, and actually looked down upon a swift rotating belt, contraction, which appeared to be a foot two yards long in about half a second and about as high as a man's head. At the end of it, mounted on the same shaft, was a 100-horse power motor about a yard in diameter, and I found that the little outfit was pumping for the people of Mt. Vernon a million and a quarter gallons of water per day. When I questioned it, Mr. Picard, the superintendent, showed me a number of his daily meter readings. A meter is mounted just ahead of the pumps so that they can tell what they are doing, and had he taken a reading myself, which I did, that at that time this little pump was serving the community at the rate of 1,000 gallons per minute, or about one and a half million in 24 hours.

He next showed me his recording pressure gauge, tracing a beautiful curve of constant pressure, almost a horizontal line. He called my attention to a pressure regulator, a device which automatically shuts off the motor when a certain pressure in their case 100 pounds, has been attained, and automatically starts again when it has dropped to 90.

All this seemed marvelous to me, but more than anything else, I was impressed with the absence of those great rattling, clanging valves, gate valves, risers and so forth, with which our men here have to struggle night and day, since the 22nd of June.

Leading from this pump to the mains outside the town, I saw a six-inch line, any part of which I believe I could carry, and the entire pump and motor were in the water within a few feet of the line, which was pressing 100 pounds of water at all the city of Newark.

Knowing that I asked about their automatic cut-off, and I learned that none was in use, that the discharge line might be closed entirely and the water would continue to turn and run in the water within itself without danger, though the pressure regulator, of course, in such a case stop.

Mr. Picard told me that Mt. Vernon
